Thoughts on Facts.

Facts are stubborn things; we cannot escape them, we cannot change them; they come to stay whether we will have them or not. Death is a stern and awful fact. Some one has said: "you could not refute a sneer," and to this he might have added facts. They are irrefutable, immovable, inflexible. The stream of time washes away the debris of untruth but the adamant of fact remains for ever. We are prone at times to wander into the field of conjecture and there to gather as the wheat of truth what indeed is but the chaff of our imaginings. Fancy too often takes liberties with the facts; we discolor, we distort, and the result is a caricature. Give to one a statement of fact, let him impart it to another, the second to a third, and so on through a dozen hands, what will remain of your statement? It will very likely prove a stranger to you at a second meeting; and fortunate will you deem yourself if you are able to recognize some of the features of an old friend; old now, so worn and decrepit has he become. Stubborn, then as applied to facts, conveys to the mind the idea of that in which, to quote the language of Holy Writ, there is neither variableness nor shadow of turning.

The whole truth of a matter is so often reached by a chain of facts that we are in danger of not seeing all the links. The failure to put in a link here and there may so shorten or so weaken the chain as to cause us to fall short of the truth we seek. Truth again may be likened to a circle. The mind's eye oftentimes does not take in the whole circumference, but its view is limited to an arc. Be sure then that you have made the whole round of facts before you deem the circles complete. God is the centre of truth; around Him in concentric circle revolve the everlasting facts.

HERE AND THERE.

A meeting of the Fortnightly Club was held last evening. A paper was read by Mr. Upson and was much enjoyed.

The fair to be give in the Westminster Chapel on December 16th and 17th is engrossing the time and attention of the ladies who are deeply interested in all that pertains to the erection and furnishing of the new church. No effort will be spared to make the fair a success. A novel feature will be an Order Table, at which those who have already ordered their goods will find them ready to be delivered. Samples of the articles that can be ordered may be seen at Mr. Jason Crane's, Montgomery and Franklin Sts. The ladies have had an order list printed and various indeed are the articles named. This will give to buyers of Christmas gifts an excellent opportunity to make a good selection and at the same time to contribute to a most worthy cause. We trust that all the friends and members of the congregation will respond most generously to the invitation extended to them to come and see and buy.

The first Glen Ridge Assembly was given in the Glen Ridge Hall last night. The patronesses were Mrs. A. G. Darwin, Mrs. George W. Berrian, Mrs. Frank S. Benson and Mrs. A. S. Niven.

The young men of the Y. M. C. A. are to be congratulated on the fact that they have procured such talent for the course to be given in the Sunday-school rooms of the First Presbyterian Church. Geo. W. Cable has won for himself a world wide reputation, and his appearance among us should be warmly welcomed. Mr. Ragan is most favorably known here and his entertainments have been much enjoyed. Prof. Churchill has delighted us in years that are past and he has lost none of his power to please.

The following question has been sent us this week and we take much pleasure in answering it. "Can you tell me where the following quotation can be found? "Inclosed, in the tumultuous privacy of storm. R. S." R. S. will find the line he seeks in Ralph Waldo Emersons' poem, "The Snow Storm."

"The house mates sit,
Around the radiant fire place inclosed
In a tumultuous privacy of storm."

Miss Minnie Hurlburt is at present teaching in Pelham Manor at Mrs. Hazen's well-known school for young ladies. Mr. E. W. Dodd is at home from Canada. Mr. James M. Barrett came from Morristown on Tuesday to attend the Glen Ridge Assembly.

To those who enjoy a good hot drink on a cold day we recommend the hot soda made by Mr. George M. Wood. A cup of coffee or bouillon such as Mr. Wood knows how to make warms and nourishes. The tasteful china cups of Berlin make out of which the hot soda is drunk do not at all detract from the pleasure of an indulgence in these warm beverages. Try them.

It seems hardly possible that the holidays are once more at hand. What a merry go round the seasons are. In the purchase of Christmas gifts why not, we ask, patronize the home trade. Many things can be bought to as good advantage of our own tradesmen as of the dealers in Newark or in New York. There is too much running elsewhere to get what is offered right here. Our village trade should be encouraged at all times and let us not forget it at this time.

A SCARED EDITOR.

A rugged farmer stalked into the sanctum with a big whip under his arm.
"Be you the editor?" "I am," was the half apprehensive reply.
"Here's two dollars—send me your paper, for life," he said.
"You see," he went on, "our daughter was sick and like to die; she drooped and grew weak and pale, had headaches, no appetite, back ached, hand and feet like ice, couldn't sleep, hacked with cough, and we thought she had consumption. No medicine helped her until she tried that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription mentioned in your paper, when she began to mend in no time and is now well and hearty and as rosy—put me down as a life subscriber."

Now the editor is looking for another scare. The medicine has cured thousands afflicted as was the farmer's daughter, restoring the female functions to healthy action, and removing the obstructions and suppressions which caused her trouble. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or price ($1.00) refunded. It's a legitimate medicine, not a beverage. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to sour or ferment in the stomach and derange digestion.

For a Book of 160 pages on Woman: Her Diseases, and How to Cure them, sent sealed in plain envelope enclose ten cents, in stamps, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. PIERCE'S PELLETS Purely Vegetable. Gently Laxative, or Cathartic, according to size of dose. Smallest, Cheapest, Sugar-coated and Easiest to take. Cure Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation. By druggists. 25 cents a vial.

The Rochester Lamp.

Perfect in Construction.
Artistic in Design.
Matchless in its Light.

Absolutely safe and unbreakable; so simple a child can manage it. It's light is purer and brighter than gas-light, softer than electric light, more cheerful than either. There are over two million in use. It must be a good lamp to make such a telling success. Indeed it is, for lamps may come and lamps may go, but "The Rochester" shines on forever! We make over 2,000 artistic varieties—Hanging and Table Lamps, Banquet and Study, Vase and Piano Lamps—every kind, in Bronze, Porcelain, Brass, Nickel and Black Wrought Iron.

Our written guarantee goes with every lamp. Ask for the lamp and the guarantee, and insist upon seeing the stamp of the genuine—"THE ROCHESTER." If the lamp dealer hasn't the genuine Rochester and the style you want, send to us for free illustrated catalogue (and reduced price-list), and we will box and send you any lamp safely by express, right to your door.

If you can it will pay you to visit our spacious stores (the largest in the world) and see the display of art in lamp-making. We have heard you can make your expenses to New York in buying a single lamp.

A number of Grand Officers were present and made addresses. There was also an election for Grand Officers. The rank of Page was conferred on one candidate, the rank of Esquire on two candidates, the rank of Knight on three candidates.

Nothing is more appropriate as a gift than glass. A remarkable display of Dorflinger's American Cut Glass may be seen at 36 Murray St., New York.

A Brilliant Social Event.

GLEN RIDGE, MONTCLAIR AND BLOOMFIELD SOCIETY PEOPLE ENJOY THEMSELVES AT A DANCE IN GLEN RIDGE HALL.—BEAUTIFUL TOILETS.—FINE MUSIC AND AN EXCELLENT SUPPER.

The first Glen Ridge Private Assembly took place in Glen Ridge Hall on Thursday night, and proved one of the most successful social affairs that has ever graced the history of this pretty suburb on the Ridge. A large concourse of society people from Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Montclair and the Oranges together with guests from New York and Brooklyn filled the hall. The Thursday night assembly is the first of a winter series of three, which have been gotten up principally through the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Niven.

The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Tropical plants procured from florist Rassbach, consisting of Barbonias, Auca and Panduras, Palms, Ficus, Aucuba, Dracenas, Ferns were arranged about the hall. The decorating was the work of Mrs. Niven, Mrs. Berrian and Miss Darwin, assisted by Mr. Niven and Mr. Berrian. The alcove in the bay window of the hall was draped with smilax. Elegant rugs covered the floor. Easy chairs and sofas were placed in the alcove for the ease and comfort of the guests.

The patronesses of the affair were Mrs. A. S. Niven, Mrs. A. G. Darwin, Mrs. Leonard Richards, Mrs. G. W. Berrian and Mrs. Frank S. Benson assisted by a committee of gentlemen consisting of Mr. A. S. Niven, Mr. A. G. Darwin, Mr. Leonard Richards, Mr. G. W. Berrian and Mr. Frank S. Benson.

An orchestra of five pieces under the leadership of Professor Isaler of Newark furnished the music. The opening dance, a quadrille, was led by the patronesses and the committee. Dancing was kept up until a late hour. Caterer Davis of Orange furnished an excellent supper of which the guests partook seated at small tables, arranged in the first floor of the building. Among the list of subscribers to this splendid event were Mr. R. N. Arms, Mr. Rob't Belloni, Mr. Fred Merribew, Mr. W. Stout, Dr. John E. Wilson, Mr. Richard Jones, Mr. Robert Dodd, Mr. C. S. Campbell, Mr. Frank G. Tewer, Mr. Ellithorpe, Mr. Clergue and others.

Glen Ridge Notes.

The last foot ball game of the season was played on the Glen Ridge outing grounds last Saturday afternoon. The Montclair Athletics met the Glen Ridgers in a closely contested game. It was very exciting. The first good plays were made by the Montclair boys, but when the friends of the Glen Ridge team saw how things were likely to go, they began to encourage the efforts of their fellow citizens by deafening shouts of applause. At this the tables seemed to turn and we are happy to announce that Glen Ridge came off victorious once more. Score ten to eleven.

We have understood that Miss Augusta L. Brower has decided to discontinue her drawing classes after the 20th of December. We hope she will reconsider her decision. Miss Brower has had no painting in her classes since October. The pupils have drawn from life the poses, have been made by Miss Gertrude Ward, Master Stanley McDowell, Miss Clara Jones who was draped as a nun in the last. Miss Lille Williams who was dressed as an emigrant in her last two poses. Miss Lulu Davis draped for a Halloween ghost in two positions, Master Frank Wheeler also taking the same character. The classes are doing very nice work.

We have been thinking that the schools of our vicinity are receiving enough attention, and while speaking of Miss Brewer's classes we think of the drawing classes of the Public School, which are ably conducted by Miss Louisa Russell. The classes have two lessons a week. In the High School they have work from life. Poses have been made by different members of the class. The first was made by Miss Sadie Billsborrow, who industriously leaned on a broom. Miss Mamie Dodd was the next victim. She wore a tennis cap and held a racket. Miss Galloway diligently painted at an easel.

So many ladies have not been seen at a fire as turned out on Thanksgiving night.

On Saturday afternoon last, the finishing game of the season was played on the Lincoln Avenue grounds. The Glen Ridge second foot ball team against the Montclair Athletic Juniors played a very interesting and exciting game. At the end of the first half the score stood 10 to 9 in the Montclair favor, but the Glen Ridge boys were determined to win. They repeatedly worked the center making good gains. Finally the ball was passed to the full back Aufermann, a new addition to the Glen Ridge team, who made a beautiful run of nearly half the field. The ball was lost on the next down but Montclair was forced to make a safety scoring two more points for Glen Ridge. Time was then called leaving the score 11 to 10 in Glen Ridge's favor. Aufermann, Scales and H. Salomon (Captain) did the best playing for Glen Ridge and Allen, T. Russell and Campbell for Montclair. Both sides tackled very well. Mr. Guinn of Montclair refereed and Mr. Lyon of Rutgers umpired.

James Larkin, several years coachman for Mr. A. G. Darwin, died on Tuesday of the past week from pneumonia.

The work of macadamizing Ridgewood avenue was commenced last week by Contractor O'Rourke. The snow storm put a stop to the work.

The arrangements for the opening reception of the Glen Ridge club which takes place on the evening of the 10th, have all been made. It will undoubtedly be a brilliant affair.

The ladies of the Westminster Chapel have decided to hold a fair in the chapel on the afternoon and evening of December 16th, and 17th, as has already been stated in this paper. But nothing was said about the unique cook book which the Whatsoever Circle of King's Daughters are getting up to be sold upon that momentous occasion. Said daughters have asked every lady (so far as they had time and opportunity, for it was a spur of the moment idea) for two recipes for eatables that they could take their dying oath upon were good. These with their names attached were sent to the printer to be put into book form. The book is to be a very attractive and substantial one. The getting up of it will cost the circle $117. They have collected $160 worth of advertisements which will net $43, and that with the sale of the book will enable the enterprising young ladies to clear $140 at the least calculation. At the Marshall P. Wilder entertainment the same circle cleared $109.37. They also have their heads full of other schemes. Stand ready, public!

A Church Concert.

A concert of a highly entertaining character was given in the Watsessing M. E. Church on Wednesday night. The Church choir rendered several anthems. Messrs. George and Albert Ellor and Miss Jennie Law performed upon the piano. Recitations were delivered by Mrs. Beach of East Orange, and Mr. Buddinghausen of the Seminary. The well-known elocutionist Mr. Fred Mohrman of Fairview, delighted the audience with a number of his humorous readings. Mr. Mohrman's readings always take well. The principal feature of the concert was the singing of Mr. and Mrs A. D. Sturges of East Orange. The audience expressed their appreciation in a very enthusiastic manner and Mr. and Mrs. Sturges were obliged to respond to encores. It is understood that these two highly gifted vocalists have promised to give a concert under their own management at some future date for the benefit of the Church building fund.

Patronize Home Industries.

For many years this town has been without a first class hardware store. True it is that tinning and plumbing establishments and also grocery stores have kept a supply of certain lines of goods that are usually found in the house furnishing line of hardware goods. The town ought to be able to support a hardware store making a specialty of first class goods. Much of this trade has gone out of town. Many people have become accustomed to purchasing in Newark on account of the absence of a hardware store in the town. Mr. Samuel Peloubet has stepped into the breach and has undertaken to fill this void among our business enterprises. Citizens interested in the development of home trade should show their appreciation of his efforts by a liberal bestowal of their patronage. Mr. Peloubet will doubtless find it up hill work for some time to come. It will take time and opportunity to draw people's attention to the fact that they can get the hardware and house furnishing goods at home just as well as in Newark or New York.

The Joel Parker Association, the leading Democratic organization in this County, held their annual meeting on Tuesday night. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, N. H. Brown, Vice President, Hon. M. T. Barrett, Treasurer, Chas. Albertin, Financial Secretary, I. Jones, Corresponding Secretary, Charles J. Sode, Secretary, Manning Force, Sergeant at Arms, Benjamin Barth, Ex-Committee, David Post, Geo. D. Hanes and David Denish, Committee on Membership, Thos. Flannery, Wm. Norton, Robert Haggerty, Frank Kelly, Wm. Beckman.

Mrs. Bertha Romig, wife of Adam Romig, who was reported seriously ill, in last week's "Citizen," died on Saturday after an illness of ten days, aged thirty-five years. Three children survive her. The funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon in the German Presbyterian Church on Park avenue, by the Pastor, the Rev. Henry Seibert. The pallbearers were: George S. Fernoff, Peter Fornoff Jr., William Fornoff, George W. Fornoff Jr., John Bickler and George Lohr.

Chief Engineer Johnson received Mr. E. H. Davey's check to the amount of $100 during the week in recognition of the services rendered by the fire department on the occasion of the recent fire on his premises.

Thomas Mullin, who resides at the American House, had the ends of three fingers on his left hand cut last week in P. B. Fairchild & Co's. Sash and Blind Factory, in Orange.

Charles Bickler is not at Peekskill, N. Y., for Contractor Riker as stated in our last issue. He is now at New Brunswick, N. J. on Mr. Riker's work at that point.

Happy and content is a home with "The Rochester;" a lamp with the light of the morning. Call on Rochester Lamp Co., 37 Park Place, New York.

Fairview Public Hall Association.

A number of gentlemen met on Monday evening last at the residence of Mr. F. N. Moffat and formed a Joint Stock Company to be known as the "Fairview Public Hall Association." The following officers were elected: President, Cyrus L. Potter; Vice President, William R. Hanna; Secretary, George W. Becker; Treasurer, Fred Mohrmann; Directors, C. L. Potter, F. N. Moffat, W. V. Hughes, C. L. Seibert, W. R. Hanna, G. W. Becker, F. Mohrmann, Stan Ferrand and Jacob Maier. The company intend to erect a hall which will be a credit to Bloomfield.

Attempted Robbery.

A pick-pocket attempted to get in his fine work on the person of Chief Engineer Johnson, in Newark on Thursday. The Chief was riding up-town on a Belleville avenue car. A neatly dressed man was standing along side of him. Mr. Johnsen felt a tugging at his watch chain and on looking down discovered that it had been broken. The Chief immediately surmized what was up and raised his fist to knock the thief off the car. The rascal sprung from the car and ran up Central avenue.

Leading authorities say the only proper way to treat catarrh is to take a constitutional remedy, like Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Some Christmas Thoughts and Suggestions.

It is needless to remind you that Christmas is coming. It would not be quite the thing to wish you "A Merry Christmas" so far ahead of time, especially if you have not selected an Ernest Gabler & Bro. upright piano for a Xmas present for your wife or child. After these thoughts let us put the suggestion mildly, that you call at our warerooms, look at our immense stock and make your selection at once. Prices are as low and terms as easy as they will be at any time. You can select the piano now and we will store it for you until you want it delivered.

We have the State agency for the celebrated Gabler upright pianos and the Estey Organs and these makes of instruments can only be purchased new from us. Particulars and address will be found in our advertisement, which will be found elsewhere. S. D. LAUTER Co.

The Little Jewel Lamp.

The introduction of petroleum as an illuminating fluid opened a fertile field for inventors in the way of designing lamps. Three qualifications are essential in a good lamp: Absolute safety, freedom from odor, and brilliancy of light. To embrace these three qualifications in perfection has ever been the desire of the designer of lamps. Many failures have been recorded in the past but the Little Jewel central draught lamp, which is now being introduced into this town by Mr. N. R. Moe, is about as nearly perfect in all that is desired in a good oil lamp as perhaps it is possible to attain to. These lamps are on exhibition in his store, 301 Glenwood Avenue, and the public are cordially invited to call and inspect them.

W. V. S. & CO.

The poet who wrote about "grasping the skirts of happy chance," probably did not see the application of his words to LADIES' SKIRTS. His remarks were fanciful—ours common sense. We offer this week a "happy chance" to buy a silk or satin skirt—the last specialty before we lift the curtain from the strictly holiday goods. Least costly among our stock is a QUILTED BLACK FARMERS' SATIN at $1. Next comes the MOHAIR variety, either quilted or plain, at $2.50. The next best thing in satin sells between $2.60 and $7, according to the "fixin's." For $4 there is a strikingly nice article quilted with ruffles around the bottom. The happiest chance of all, though, is to be grasped out of the BLACK SILK SKIRTS. One lot, ruffled, and lined throughout with red flannel is cheap at $9, but we have a $6.50 quilted black Surah, which might suit you as well. For a LIGHT WEIGHT with ruffles—finest quality—our $8.50 Taffeta Silk is notably good, and there are still handsomer styles up to $10.50. We will match our Skirt Department with the best and come out winner.

THE SUN FOR 1891.

Some people agree with THE SUN'S opinions about men and things, and some people don't; but everybody likes to get hold of the newspaper which is never dull and never afraid to speak its mind.

Democrats know that for twenty years THE SUN has fought in the front line for Democratic principles, never wavering or weakening in its loyalty to the true interests of the party it serves with fearless intelligence and disinterested vigor. At times opinions have differed as to the best means of accomplishing the common purpose; it is not THE SUN'S fault if it has seen further into the millstone.

Eighteen hundred and ninety-one will be a great year in American politics, and everybody should read THE SUN.
